

25.11.1928 - 20.03.2020

Tribute to prominent pharmaceutical academic, medicinal chemist and a science historian Professor Harkishan Singh (25.11.1928 - 20.03.2020), on his 93rd birthday. Padma Shri awardee Professor Singh has over 40 years of experience in medicinal and pharmaceutical chemistry. He worked with Banaras Hindu University, Panjab University and University of Saugar at home and at the University of London, Maryland, and Mississippi abroad. A National Fellow of the University Grants Commission, India, he was Professor Emeritus at the Panjab University, Chandigarh. He has been very closely involved in the working of several professional and statutory bodies.

As a pharmaceutical academic, Professor Singh had larger goals and commitment in his mind and heart in the establishment of National Institute of Pharmaceutical Education & Research (NIPER), SAS Nagar, Punjab.

NIPER, SAS Nagar pay tribute to Professor Harkishan Singh for tireless contribution and generously transferring his personal library to this institute. The collection is spread over 1700 volumes related to the history of medico-pharmaceutical development in India of the nineteenth and twentieth century and is maintained at the Pharmaceutical Heritage Centre, NIPER, SAS Nagar. In his memory, a dedicated gallery " Professor Harkishan Singh's Archival Collection" has been created to showcase his collections. The Archival collection is opened for use by interested researchers as reference. The interested researchers may contact us at phc@niper.ac.in. #Shri D. V.
