

Thank you for trusting us with your research in 2023

Dear Ishfaq Rashid,

Thank you for entrusting Clinical Nutrition ESPEN with your recent paper, "Rates and determinants of fast chronic kidney disease progression distinguished by nutritional status, and the impact of malnutrition on mortality - evidence from a clinical population". Sharing your research with the broader community is important to us, and we're excited to continue supporting your future work.

Letter from the Elsevier Journals Leadership Team

"We wish to express our gratitude for your decision to publish with Elsevier in 2023. Publishing academic research is a significant achievement, and your dedication to this endeavor does not go unnoticed. Your contributions continue to drive global research forward, and our goal is to highlight the impact of the insights you share and ensure they reach a broad and relevant global audience.

We understand that you have a range of choices when selecting journals for your research, and we are truly honored that you have chosen to partner with us. We look forward to continued collaboration in the year ahead.

Thank you for your hard work and commitment to your field."
